

Jean McLemore Lewter

March 7, 1933 - December 22, 2021

Jean McLemore Lewter passed away Wednesday, December 22, 2021 in Athens, Alabama. Jean was born to Cleveland and Winnie Bryan McLemore on March 7, 1933 in Lincoln County, Tennessee.

Jean lived in this area most of her life and was a member of Prospect Baptist Church. She enjoyed reading, cross stitching, and playing cards. In her earlier years she taught Sunday school classes and was a Girls Auxiliary Leader.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband of 52 years, Wiley Glendal Lewter; brother, J.C. McLemore; sisters, Ellen Jobe, Emily VanHorn and Edith Malone.

She is survived by her daughters, Kay (Jack) Harper of Athens, AL and Faye (David) Ables of Louisville, KY; grandchildren, Sandy Ables Costa, Robin Ables Waldrige and Ty Ables all of Louisville, KY; 5 great grandchildren and 1 great-great grandchild.

There will be a Graveside Service Monday, December 27, 2021 at 11:00 AM at Blanche Cemetery, Taft, TN with Bro. Ronny Gay officiating.

Comments

“ Learning of Jean’s passing today, I have remembered this family in prayer. As an honor to her I want to add my appreciation for her leadership in Girls Auxiliary. Not only in the classes, because she, Kay and Fay picked me up on those Wednesday nights. Fast forwarding into adult life, I came to understand her efforts followed a day at work then a family meal before adding a few more miles just to pick me up. It’s important to me that I leave a comment about Mr. Glenn as well. And now I am paused to even find words. First their Fifty plus years of marriage is a testimony. And since I was in their home a number of times, I can still describe a sweet aroma in relationships. Mr. Glenn was gentle, kind, respectful when speaking to Mrs. Winnie, Jean, or his daughters. Often with subtle humorous ways as I recall his boy like, warm smile toward Jean. Couldn’t miss it. Jean, pretty, soft spoken, and great role model for a group of pre teen girls in the classes and in her home. May God grant to each of you His comforting spirit.

pamela - December 24, 2021 at 10:36 PM

“ Teresa Shearron purchased the Enduring Grace for the family of Jean McLemore Lewter.

Teresa Shearron - December 22, 2021 at 06:47 PM