“ I worked with Alan for the past 5 years at Boeing. I was shocked and saddened to hear that he had passed on to be with God. May you find comfort in the wonderful memories that you have of a wonderful husband and father. May God help to heal the hole that has been left in your lives. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.

“ Alan, I have always loved you like a brother and my heart is broken right now. You were much more than a friend and co-worker and words cannot explain how I am feeling at this moment. Alicia, Kyle, and Hannah - I am so sorry for your loss as Alan was a great Husband and Father. He loved nothing more than spending time with his family. I'm going to miss our daily phone calls. I still find myself picking up the phone to call him only to realize I can't do that anymore. I LOVE YOU MY BROTHER, MAY YOU REST IN PEACE... I WILL NEVER, EVER FORGET YOU AND WILL FOREVER CHERISH THE FRIENDSHIP WE HAD!! WE WILL BE TOGETHER AGAIN ONE DAY. LOVE, THE GILMARTIN FAMILY
