

Albert Donald (A.D.) Bland

January 24, 1930 - December 2, 2002

Albert Donald (A.D.) Bland, 72, of 7th Street, Ardmore, Alabama, died on Monday, December 2, 2002, at Sunbridge Care and Rehabilitation Center for Ardmore. Funeral Services were held at 2:00 P.M. Thursday, December 5, 2002, at Ardmore Memorial Funeral Home with Rev. Carl Hubbard officiating. Burial was in Elliott Cemetery with Ardmore Memorial Funeral Home in charge. Pallbearers were Mike Curry, Matt Curry, Tim Seiple, Phillip Gates, Dwight Gates and David Cunningham. Mr. Bland was born in Limestone County, Alabama, on January 24, 1930, to the late John Walter and Mattie Bee Gates Bland. He was an Army veretan. He lived and worked most of his life in the Ardmore area as a heavy equipment operator. Survivors include three daughters, Nancy Davey and Deborah Hood both of Ardmore, Alabama, and Pamela Lewter of Elkton, Tennessee; one brother, Harold Bland of Camden, Michigan; two sisters, Louise Pickens of Toledo, Ohio, and Barbara Seiple of Columbus, South Carolina; five grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.