“ To all the family, I am sorry for the loss of a sweet and special lady. She was a wonderful neighbor as well as a Christian friend. I am sure she will be missed by all of you for you could see the love and concern she had for all of you. May you find peace and comfort in the words of our father in Heaven.

“ Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Johnson family with these comforting words: The pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such times, we need to go to God's Word for comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) The Bible helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. You see, God promises that the dead will live again. (Isaiah 26:19) They will be brought back to life. That is the hope of the resurrection (Acts 24:15). I am very sorry for your loss. May God's Word comfort you and your family. Sincerely, Meryl ~ crochetmerylsway@gmail.com
