“ They tell me I howled up a storm as Annette's two-year-old flower girl, but she never seemed to hold it against me. The first memories I have of her are when she came to stay with us a few years later. My smart and sassy, beautiful cousin was so much fun and I tried to emulate even the way she put the pins in her hair. I'm so thankful she was a part of our family, and she will be greatly missed. Lots of love and prayers to Uncle Clyde, Aunt Jan, and Kristen.

“ May our heavenly Father give the family all the needed comfort and strength to get through each day until the fulfillment of his Kingdom promises. (Matt.6:10) At that time he will replace all your tears of pain and sorrow with tears of joy and happiness. (John 5:28,29; Rev.21:4)
My deepest sympathy.

“ She is beautiful! We have not seen her since she was a small child in Salinas, Ca. The visual mental image will always be that precious family you so proudly had. We also will forever link our dear friends, Harold and Judy with that image. Now, she is one of God's angels and we'll celebrate with her in heaven, I know. Let's make a better effort to see one another more often as this has proven how short life can be. Love and prayers, Jack and Peg Harmon

“ My heart goes out to all of the family; I can't believe we lost her so young. My heart is breaking knowing of all the opportunities I missed to tell her I loved her as a sister - I have to be certain that she knew. May God Wrap His Loving Arms around each of you now and hold her close until we can each see her again. With God's Love, Sandra
