“ Aunt Annie was just a good ole country lady. Very generous with what she had even though they had very little. I remember the times spent at her house and even eating with her and Uncle Robert. Remember the old horse and all of the animals that she had through the years. Her veggie garden, her flowers, and especially her quilting some of the most beautiful quilts you have ever seen. She took a lot of pride in every thing she did. Aunt Annie was such a dear sweet person. She has been missed for a long time as old age took her mind and memory, and now God has taken her body and soul. Aunt Annie you will be missed and we all love you much.
