“ Barbara was a sweet, kind friend that loved to give hugs and kisses after every visit with her.
She and I had a hilarious bike ride one day, that sent me for a tumble in the wet grass next to the road. Barb jumped off her bike and began trying to pick me up, and asking me if I was alright. I'm laying on the ground and Barb is pulling at my arms and legs trying to help me up. We look at one another and realize, Barb is like 100 lbs. trying to pick up 100 lbs. of me off the wet ground, and we start laughing out loud at one another and the situation that we both are in. Needless to say we agreed to put up the bikes and if we wanted exercise we would just do some walking. Barb said maybe she needed some strength training and I needed bicycle lessons. Her sweet laugh and hugs and kisses will be missed. Our prayers and Gods blessings for Rick and all of her family. May you all have peace and comfort throught this difficult time.
