“ May God comfort each of you as you grieve the passing of your precious mother. I remember you all lost your dad when you were still young. I know you'll miss her earthly presence in your lives, but the wonderful memories you have of her will live on...until the day we're all reunited forever.

*God Bless You,
Murdena*

“ I remember so many things about aunt Bert. One time when I came home from the hospital, she cook a meal and brought it to our house. Aunt Bert's birthday was December 22 I beleive, and my birthday is December 20, so we celibrated our birthday's together. Aunt birt will be missed by so many but we know she is probaly having a good time in heaven with her three sisters among others that she knows that has done gone on to glory.
May God bless you all- Jerry, Phil, Mark, and your families. With Love Dale and Shirley
