“ I just had to share this wonderful memory of my brother in Christ. One of the highlights of my ministry and wonderful memory of Chuck was baptizing him at the creek. I had never baptized a person 90 years old. When he came up out of that water he just sprung up like a man in his twenties!! What a tremendous blessing to be a part of Chuck and his wonderful wife's lives!! What a blessing and what a day!! Can't wait to see my dear brother again!

“ As Chuck's pastor and friend I would have to say that Chuck encouraged and inspired me. He amazed me with his youthful spirit and tremendously positive attitude. Words can't express how special he was to me and so many others. What a great guy with a great spirit of adventure!!

“ I reconnected with Chuck recently and wish to offer his family support. We were Willard High School classmates and two of the few remaining of the class of 1951. I remember him as a quiet, kind and considerate human being. I have no doubt he made the world a better place for those he loved.
