

Charles Phillips, Sr.

August 10, 1931 - May 1, 2009

Charles Phillips, Sr., 77, of Elkmont, AL, died Friday, May 1, 2009, at his residence. There were no public funeral services planned but the family requests donations to the American Cancer Society. Charles Phillips, Sr. was born in Hollywood, AL on Monday, August 10, 1931, to the late Wesley Phillips and the late Annie Mae Shelton Phillips Gentry. He served in the US Army for 21 years, serving in both Vietnam and Korean Wars. He received a Purple Heart for his services in Vietnam, three Bronze Stars for his service in the Korean War, as well as numerous accommodations. He loved gardening and National Geographic Magazines. He was preceded in death by his parents. Survivors include his wife: Teresa Phillips of Elkmont, AL; three sons: Dwayne Phillips of Madison, AL, Jeffrey Phillips of Elkmont, AL, and Charles Phillips, Jr. of Elkmont, AL; a daughter: Carolyn A. Key of Woodville, AL; a half-brother: Anthony Gentry; six grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.