

Charlotte Adams Hood

March 30, 1941 - May 1, 2026

Charlotte Adams Hood, of Gulf Shores, Alabama, passed away on May 1, 2026, at the age of 85, following a long battle with Alzheimer's disease.

She was married to Jerry Max Hood, Sr for 40 years.

Charlotte was the author of the southeastern historical book " Jackson's White Plumes" and a member of the historical research group, The Ten Island Three.

She was an accomplished pianist who found great joy in all music. She loved drawing, painting, and she delighted in games of Scrabble with her friends and grandchildren.

In later years, she enjoyed playing dominoes with her devoted partner of 25 years Earl Marsh of Indianapolis. They were often seen together at Bahama Bob's where they were cherished regulars.

She is survived by her children, Jerry Max Hood, Jr (Julie), David Adams Hood (Kim) and Leasa Hood Warren (James). She had many grandchildren and great-grandchildren whom she loved dearly.

A graveside service will be held on May 8, at 3:00 p.m. at Gatlin Cemetery in Ardmore, Alabama.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.

Ardmore Chapel Funeral Home is assisting the family with services.
