“ It is a beautiful thing when One who cares so deeply for Jesus, gets to step into His presence. You were passionate about your Lord, your wife Paula, your family, Greg and Gary, and your good friends, and I believe, still are. It is also a beautiful thing that the ones of us that have not obtained but are still running the race, as Paul mentions, will get to see you again in the health and vitality you had when you were young.

Shalom dear friend, Go in peace.
