“ We were so sorry to read about the loss of Preston. It is easy to see that he was loved by many and will be greatly missed. We know that words can not ease your pain, but you can have faith that God has a plan for us to see our loved ones again on a paradise earth. At John 5:28 & 29 Jesus promises us, "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life..." God's word offers us so much comfort. We invite you to visit jw.org where you will find many Bible based publications that will answer your questions and offer you support. Please feel free to contact us as well. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Cor. 1:3) be with you at this time.

“ I still cannot believe it. You will always be my little brother. I will cherish our memories forever. I was always telling you to stay out of trouble and you would just laugh and smile and look at me and say i will sis i promise now calm down lol. That time you fell off my front porch we all died laughing you still had your phone in your hand holding it for dear life lol. You was always such a nut. Always kept people laughing! Aurora would run up to you everytime she saw you and make you pick her up and she would just hug you. She loved you. You will be truly missed porkchop. We love you so much. Fly high babe!

“ Preston was such a sweet young man. I hadn't known him as well recently, but was always around him when he was little. I still remember him always telling me, as I was holding maddy, that he understood baby and that baby wanted me to put her down where he could play with her. He would try to tote her around like she was his and he was grown, taking care of her. LOL. He was always such a sweet, happy, and kind young man. As I said I may not have known him as well recently, but I loved him and am deeply sorrowed about what happened. I babysat him and carried maddy to play with him and I loved him very much. God got a great new angel when he got Preston as he has always had such a kind, caring, happy, and sweet soul. RIP Pres. I know you are in Heaven with your daddy and yall are together again in Heaven.
