“ Please accept my condolences on your loss. Even with special strength (Psalm 90:10) we eventually submit to our great enemy death (1Cor.15:26). However, the victory shall be ours in the end (Acts 24:15). May this hope and your fond memories bring you comfort in the days ahead.

“ Please accept my sympathies on your loss. Even with special strength (Psalm 90:10) we eventually submit to our great enemy death (1Cor.15:26). However we shall gain the victory in the end (Acts 24:15). May your good memories comfort you through coming days.

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hope you can find comfort in the words found at Psalms 147:3 that says ;"He is healing the broken hearted ones and is binding up their painful spots". God, as the hearer of prayer will comfort you also, in the days ahead as you remember Elifus.

“ I so well remember Elifus as I was growing up. My Dad owned a grocery store on main street Ardmore and he and Elifus were good friends. Elifus took me for a ride in the squad car and then took me to jail to see how it would feel to be locked up. He did this because I asked him too. That was one place I never wanted to be again. Prayers for all his family. Thankful I knew him.
