“ Dear Patton & Tunstill Families,
I am so terribly sorry for your loss. Please accept my heartfelt condolences. I know there is probably very little anyone can say that will soothe the pain you feel. However, may you find comfort in the loving promise of our Heavenly Father that He will reunite us with our dead loved ones by means of a resurrection right here on earth in paradise conditions that will be filled with peace, happiness, and perfect health for everyone in the near future. (John 5:28,29; Psalm 37:9-11,29; Isaiah 33:24) May this precious hope, along with loving memories of Emily, bring you a measure of comfort during this most difficult time. Rest assured that God will do all that He has promised. (Hebrews 6:18) My deepest sympathy to you.

“ To Luke and Emily's family, I am so sorry for your loss. I met Emily when she did job training at Huntsville Pediatrics through Virginia College. She always had a smile on her face and she didn't meet a stranger. Her eagerness to learn and her work ethic were amazing traits. There are no words I can say right now to ease your pain, but I offer my prayers for you all. Hold the precious memories of the love you shared with her in your heart and she will always be there with you.

We are so very sorry for your loss; words really can't express our feelings. You and your family are constantly in our thoughts and prayers. Robert, several times in the past 24 hours we've looked back at your picture with Emily on her wedding day and remember how proud you were of her and her new husband.
