

Freddie Ray Boldin

September 28, 2004

Freddie Ray Boldin, 61, of Pulaski, Tennessee, died Tuesday, September 28, 2004, in Montgomery, Alabama. Funeral Services were held at 2:00 P.M. on Friday, October 1, 2004, with Pastor Dale Myers officiating. Burial was in Blanche Cemetery with Ardmore Memorial Funeral Home in charge. Mr. Boldin was born in Lincoln County, Tennessee, to Sherman Boldin and Trudie Lewter Boldin. He was a Veteran of the U.S. Army. He was a welder and loved yard work and smoking his pipe. Survivors include one son, William Ray Boldin of Elkton, Tennessee; two daughters, Paula Cardin of Pulaski, Tennessee, and Emily Boldin of Athens, Alabama; one brother, James Boldin of Athens, Alabama; five sisters, Dorothy Burdett of Huntsville, Alabama, Ellen Smith of Chicago, Illinois, Mildred Cowan of Fayetteville, Tennessee, Aline Cross of Ardmore, Alabama, and Irene Wagner of Nashville, Tennessee; and three grandchildren, Chelsey and Tyler Cardin and Robert C.J. Boldin.