“ I am a first cousin of Gladys, Patsy Jean Jones Scott. I live in BrentwoodTN. I remember being with Gladys and her siblings when we were young and my Dad, Elzie Jones, brought me and my Mom, Wilma, to visit Uncle Odie and Aunt Marie Jones, who are Gladys' parents. We would just visit and be together and laugh and have a meal together It seems that people don't take time to do that as much these days. My Dad, Elzie, loved his 8 brothers and we visited them often which helped me to love my cousins. I remember that Gladys had such pretty skin like her Mom. She seemed to always have a tan. I remember when she and Doug were young and soo in love,too. Those are such sweet memories for me. I still love all of the Jones Brothers and their families. I miss them. ❤️

“ Gladys was my first cousin. We spent lots of time together throughout our childhood years. I remember when she and Doug met and fell in love and were married. I moved away when I got married and 40 years passed before I saw Gladys again.

“ Gladys and Doug were my neighbors when Bill and I moved to Rogersville. We rescued many abandoned animals. We had a garden and Gladys and Bill canned many fresh tomatoes. I will always treasure her love and friendship. May she rest in peace.
