“ Susan, I always enjoyed listening to you talk about your mother. Because of what you told me, I began to admire Pat because she was such a patient and dedicated caregiver to her loved ones. I could tell you and your mother had a special relationship because you looked forward to sharing time with her when both of you could manage to get the same days off from work.

I know you and "Little Bit" brought so much joy to each other and you will hold the beautiful memories in your heart forever and ever.
