“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I have found much comfort in the account about Lazarus at John 11:32-44 during my own time of grief. I look forward to seeing my loved ones again in the resurrection. May you find comfort in the inspired scriptures and in your fond memories of your loved one. (Acts 24:15)

“ May your family find comfort in the Bible hope of a resurrection (Acts24:15). A sure promise from God. Also comforting is loving memories shared with one another.

“ Jerry Meadows, Lt. Meadows as I knew him during our tour of duty with the Alabama Department of Corrections. Meadows was the sweetest guy I have yet to meet. He and I would talk from time to time even after his retirement, and even had lunch on different occasions. He was a great husband, father, brother, dad, and grandfather, and I assumed he loved his family, for we talked about them all the time. So, to the family, I know you guys are going to miss him for I am. I pray God's grace will keep you today and the days ahead.

Moe, as I was known to Lt. Meadows
