“ I will always remember Buddy as a true Christian man. Being saved in later years is rare, but once saved he completely turned his life around. If you never heard his testimony, you truly missed a blessing. He was one of a kind - loving husband, father, brother, church family member, and friend. I will miss him terribly but he's with the Lord, probably talking about playing music, laying bricks or woodworking , because he was wonderful at all. Miss you dear friend. See you again someday.
