“ Thinking of you all during this sad time as you transition to earthly life without Mark. I know that only God can help ease your loss and I am praying that the Holy Spirit will minister to each of you as you mourn the loss of a son and brother.

“ June Hollingsworth

Uncle Bobby, Linda and Brenda.....What a loss we all have in Mark's passing. From the sweet words spoken of him at his service, it is evident he made an impact on many people during his short life. He is now forever at peace and in none of his constant physical pain. God bless you all! I will see you all soon. Love you, June

“ Mr. Bobby, Linda and Brenda, you know Mark has always been special to me from the time I taught him in 7th and 8th grade until his death. He was so smart and had so many talents. I remember his artist ability and creativity when I taught him as he would illustrate the stories and poems we were reading. I was blessed to have a friendship with him when he returned from Houston. I will forever cherish gifts he gave me, cards he sent, and kind words he said. Praying God will comfort you with His presence and the good memories you have of Mark. Carol Cooper
