“ I was so very sorry to hear of the loss of your mother, Kathleen Henderson. Kathleen was such a beautiful woman, inside and out. I only got to see her about once a year when I visit Cash Point, but I will miss her. She was always a part of the church I grew up in, and a true Christian lady. My heart goes out to you and your families.

“ They say time heals, and to some extent it does. But we never stop missing our mothers. From what I hear, yours was a great mother and a wonderful person. I hope you find comfort in that.

“ When tomorrow starts without me, And I'm not there to see, If the sun should rise and find your eyes All filled with tears for me; I wish so much you wouldn't cry The way you did today, While thinking of the many things, We didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, As much as I love you, And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too; But when tomorrow starts without me, Please try to understand, That an angel came and called my name, And took me by the hand, And said my place was ready, In heaven far above, And that I'd have to leave behind All those I dearly love. But as I turned to walk away, A tear fell from my eye For all my life, I'd always thought, I didn't want to die. I had so much to live for, So much left yet to do, It almost seemed impossible That I was leaving you. I thought of all the yesterdays, The good ones and the bad, I thought of all the love we shared, And all the fun we had. If I could relive yesterday, Just even for a while, I'd say good-bye and kiss you And maybe see you smile. But then I fully realized, That this could never be, For emptiness and memories, Would take the place of me. And when I thought of worldly things, I might miss come tomorrow, I thought of you, and when I did, My heart was filled with sorrow. But when I walked through Heavens Gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, From His great golden throne, He said, "This is eternity, And all I've promised you. Today your life on earth is past, But here life starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, But today will always last, And since each day's the same way There's no longing for the past. You have been so faithful, So trusting and so true. Though there were times you did some things You knew you shouldn't do. But you have been forgiven And now at last you're free. So won't you come and take my hand And share my life with me?" So when tomorrow starts without me, Don't think we're far apart, For every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.

“ John,
Sending my deepest sympathy to you and your family on the loss of your mother. I have memories of her as a "true" southern lady, always so beautiful and kind. Treasure your precious memories, may they bring you comfort during this difficult time. Thinking of you,
Dora

“ Jimmy & John & Families: I am so sorry that you've lost your mom. She was such a dear aunt...wise, sweet, witty, warm and such a great cook! I'll never forget her biscuits, peach cobbler, fried chicken or (and most importantly) her devotion to Jesus. She's with her Savior now and so many dear ones who have gone on before. I know how much you'll miss her but rest in the knowledge she's safe in the arms of Our Lord!

“ To Jimmy, John and Family
Mrs. Kathleen was a special lady in my life. She told me many times that she prayed for me and my family. I know your days ahead will be difficult but know that she is with Jesus and memories of her living for Jesus will continue on.
