ME

“ *Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Appleton family with these comforting words: IT IS painful to watch a loved one suffer and die. We naturally grieve such a loss. It is comforting to know, however, that our Creator understands our grief. More than that, he longs to use his almighty power to restore life to the dead. Notice the hope conveyed in the words of Job, recorded at Job 14:13-15. I am very sorry for your loss. May God's Word comfort you and your family. Sincerely, Meryl ~ healingwordsforu@gmail.com. “ I am sure going to miss you. You were a great cousin, loving, giving, and always made me laugh. Life is going to be different without you in it but I know that you will always be looking down on your family. Having spent a lot of our childhood together(I mean a lot)I just wish we would have spent a lot of our adulthood together as well.( I am sorry for that) but I know that you know that I loved you just like a brother. Rest In Peace I will see you again someday...

“ To the family of Kevin-So sorry about your loss. He was a special guy who suffered quiet a few years. I will always wonder why he had to go so young, but God knows best and he needed him in Heaven. Kevin I love you and you will never be forgotten. So sorry I did not get to see him as much as I would have liked to. Praying for the family.
