

Leonard Joseph Nichols

February 24, 2003

Leonard Joseph Nichols, 72, of Bates Hollow Road, Prospect, Tennessee, died Monday, February 24, 2003, at his residence. Graveside Services were held at 10:00 A.M. at Pettusville Cemetery in Elkmont, Alabama, with Rev. Jerry Smith and Ardmore Memorial Funeral Home in charge. Mr. Nichols was born in Athens, Alabama to the late Frank and Clara Clem Nichols. He was a member of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church and also a member of the Black Angus Association. Survivors include his wife, Geneva Nichols of Prospect, Tennessee; two sons, Tony and wife Myra Nichols of California, and Danny Nichols of Arizona; three daughters, Paula and husband Leo Tucker of Wayne, Michigan, Terrie and husband Greg May of Weidman, Michigan, and Tammy and husband Joe Weidman of Redford, Michigan; one step-son, Jeff and wife Debbie Stephens of Michigan; three step-daughters, Rita Pauline Stephens, Kay and husband Bob Zambron, both of Jacksonville, North Carolina, and Jeanette and husband Edward Grammer of Yspilanti, Michigan; one brother, Frank Nichols of Ardmore, Alabama; three sisters, Beatrice Malone of Athens, Alabama, Lillie May Hemphill of Clinton, Iowa, and Rachel Reyer of Elkmont, Alabama; five grandchildren, Jeff and Anthony Schlenker, Sandy Saylor, Nicole May, Courtney and Conner Weidman; three great-grandchildren, Jacob, Alex, and Logan Saylor; and six step-grandchildren, Jeffrey, Rob, and Jamie Stephens, Crystal Quintero, Donald Stephens, and Edward Grammer, Jr.