“ Robert & Family, So sorry to hear about Linda. I think about those times y'all would have lunch or supper at Shady Lawn and when Linda and the girls would come over for breakfast or lunch and how good y'all were to help out some of the employees who had kids when they were down on their luck. Those things never went unnoticed and I'm sure Mrs. Linda is enjoying the results of her hard work and compassion for others. Just want you all to know, that others know too, what a sweetheart she was and we will be thinking of y'all through the days to come.
