“I am so very sorry for your loss. Please find comfort in God's sure promise of a resurrection as set forth in the Bible. (Consider Acts 24:15; John 5:28,29) Those who are raised to life will have the prospect of never again being subjected to misery, sickness, or death. (Revelation 21:3-5) I hope that reflecting on these thoughts will give you some relief during this difficult time.

“*Doug, Shari, and Hendrix family,
From one Air Force Family to another, we are saddened by the loss of your Father - a truly great American, who dedicated a portion of his life for the liberty, safety and security of all Americans. There is no doubt numerous sacrifices your Father made during his service that go unmentioned, but always appreciated. While your Father’s passing leaves a void, the fond memories and cherished family events will help to fill the emptiness and those thoughts will last a lifetime. Look upon those thoughts in kind remembrance to lift your spirits.*

As a tribute to a fellow Air Force Member: (“High Flight,” John Gillespie Magee, 1941)

*“Oh! I have slipped the surly bonds of Earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I’ve climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
of sun-split clouds, — and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of — wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence. Hov’ring there,
I’ve chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air....*

*Up, up the long, delirious, burning blue
I’ve topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace.
Where never lark, or even eagle flew —
And, while with silent, lifting mind I’ve trod
The high untraversed sanctity of space,
- Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.”

“ I was saddened to hear of your loss. Your family was always so special to me and I have fond memories from kindergarten to high school with you all. I regret that I will not be able to make it to the service or visitation as my brother Billy's mother-in-law is being buried on Friday in Florence. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. God bless you all.
