“ Today was a sad day, seeing a wonderful lady laid to rest. I met Christine about 20 years ago through the Alabama Division United Daughters of the Confederacy, where she served as our Division President. She gave me a folder one time that had information about my ancestors, I was very grateful to get it .
She will be greatly missed by her UDC sisters.
My sympathy and condolences to her children and family.

“ I never met Christine in person but "talked" to her by email. She was descended from the same John D. Watkins as I am. We are cousins. She sent me several interesting items about our ancestors and photos when she and some other family members installed the WATKINS CEMETERY marker near John D. Watkins' grave. I wish I could have met her. I will at our big heavenly reunion. She loved the Watkins side of her ancestry. My condolences to all the family...other cousins of mine.
