“ Mrs. Lovell was a loving, caring , and giving lady! When she saw a need, she filled it. She faithfully served her Lord, her family, and others. Our family stopped by the Lovell's home in Indiana on our way to MN. Emily was a toddler and for some reason was in need of a bath. Mrs. Lovell and the girls put Emily in the kitchen sink and gave her a good cleaning! Sending love and prayers, Glenn, Renee, and Emily Carter

“ Whattl a great servant of the Lord. I first met the Lovell s after I trusted Christ as my savior in DallasTexas. Where ever her hubby was she was. The epitome of the Proverbs 31 Lady. They were always working on bus route soulwinning pr anything that had to do with serving the Lord. She took care of my children for us with no hesitation when my wife almost died in an accident in 1997. She loved the Lord her family and the bus ministry. She will be missed. How do.you fill a woman like hers shoes. You cant. Love You and see you again one day. Gonzales family.
