“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your precious child. Nothing I could possibly say could relieve you of the grief you feel, nor should it. You need to grieve. However, you will be thankful for the comfort that only God’s Word can bring in the weeks and months ahead. Consider reading the account found at Luke 8:41,42 and verses 49-56 about Jesus’ compassion for a parent who had lost his young daughter. Also the account about Lazarus at John 11:32-44 and Acts 24:15. Until you see your dearest one again, may you find solace in your memories and in the inspired scriptures.
