

Mattie Pearl Lewter

June 4, 1923 - September 1, 2004

Mattie Pearl Lewter, 81, of Ardmore, Tennessee, died Wednesday, September 1, 2004, at Valley View Nursing Home in Madison, Alabama. Funeral Services were held at 2:00 P.M. on Friday, September 3, 2004, at Ardmore Memorial Funeral Home with Bro. Sammy Brister, Bro. Steve Hargrove, and Joy Lewter officiating. Burial was in Gatlin Cemetery with Ardmore Memorial Funeral Home in charge. Pallbearers were Eddie Shannon, Jimmy Bryant, Bussy Smith, Billy Joe Lewter, Buddy South, and Sam Glossup. Mrs. Lewter was born on June 4, 1923, in Lincoln County, Tennessee, to Gladys Smith and Ida Dale Maddox Smith. She was a homemaker and a member of Ardmore First Baptist Church. She was preceded in death by her husband, J.O. Lewter, and a son, Larry Lewter. Survivors include: one daughter, Martha Ann (gary) Hargrove of Ardmore, Alabama; one daughter-in-law, Joy Lewter of Chapel Hill, Tennessee; four grandchildren, Suzette Penland of Dallas, Texas, Steve Hargrove of Ardmore, Alabama, Andy Lewter of Maryville, Tennessee, and Wayne Lewter of Chapel Hill, Tennessee; and seven great-grandchildren.