“ Mavis was the first beautician to ever cut and style my hair. I was getting ready to have my senior annual picture made. Little did I know that someday Mavis and I would be good friends working together and later business partners too. You could not be around Mavis for more than two minutes until she would be telling you something funny and have you laughing. She had a delightful personality and was always fun to be around. As sad as it is to lose you dear friend, I am so very thankful that God didnt allow you suffer through all the cancer treatments and procedures that you would have had. Stephanie and Robby and grandchildren, ya'll were truly blessed to have her as your loving mother and grandmother. And siblings and all the rest, you have my deepest sympathy also. I am so very thankful that Mavis was a Christian and I'm sure she influenced many with her fine example. She was always posting something spiritual and uplifting on facebook. She was one of my very best friends whom I loved with all my heart. Heaven will never be the same with Mavis Pitts there! Praying we will see each other again someday!
