“ Aunt Nora was like a 2nd mom to me growing up. Our families lived in the same neighborhood just a block apart for most of my childhood. Her kids and my siblings and I were almost inseparable. I remember Nora for her friendly demeanor and she always had a dry, sarcastic wit about her, but not in a mean way. I always enjoyed being around her. Even though life took our 2 families in different directions, some of my best memories were from those times. RIP Aunt Nora, love always.
