“ I looked up to cousin Patricia. She was always so cheerful and adventurous. At her apartment if she only had 1 item it would be ice cream.

I enjoyed hearing of her travels to other countries. In awe I would watch her put makeup and hair just like Priscilla Presley. She shared with me later. Jim and Pat would drive out to California many summers to visit family, her best friend Linda and attend the Blues festival on their way home. They would stay at our humble ranch. We reminisced and made new memories. Our family will always treasure the love and kindness she bestowed upon us.

I will miss hearing Pat's laugh, childish giggle, advice, stories and her never ending kindness she shared with all those she met.
