“ I’m so sorry to hear of your loss. May I offer you my condolences. I have found much comfort in the words of John 11:23-25; Jesus said to Martha: “Your brother will rise.” Martha said to him: “I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day.” Jesus said to her: “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.” Death may claim our loved ones momentarily, but we will receive them back in the end. Until that anticipated time arrives, we have many cherished memories to warm our heart.

“ Please accept my sympathies on your loss. Even with special strength (Psalm 90:10) we eventually submit to our great enemy death (1Cor.15:26). However we shall gain the victory in the end (Acts 24:15). May your good memories comfort you through coming days.
