

Pauline Polly Rolin Jones

August 18, 1925 - February 12, 2009

Pauline "Polly" Rolin Jones, 83, of W. Hobbs Street, Athens, Alabama, formerly of Pulaski, Tennessee, died Thursday, February 12, 2009, at Limestone Lodge. Funeral Services were held at 11:00 A.M. on Saturday, February 14, 2009, with Jeff Jenkins officiating. Burial was in Maplewood Cemetery in Pulaski, Tennessee with Ardmore Chapel Funeral Home in charge. Pallbearers were Wayne Usery, Lynn Rolin, Tim Rolin, Ricky Rolin, Byron Rolin, and Shan Rolin. Honorary pallbearers were Jeff Rolin and Phillip "Luke" Rolin. Pauline "Polly" was born August 18, 1925, in Ardmore, Tennessee, to E.D. Rolin and Mary King Rolin. She had lived in Athens for three years after moving from Pulaski, Tennessee, where she lived most of her life. She was a member of Second Street Church of Christ where she taught Sunday School for over forty years. She enjoyed gardening and working outside. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband: George H. Jones, Sr., grandson: Darren Jones, brother: Bud Rolin, and sister: Bertie Woodfin. Survivors include sons: Larry W. Jones of Athens, Alabama, Randy P. Jones, Sr. of Pulaski, Tennessee and George Jones, Jr. of Pulaski, Tennessee; four brothers: Bobby Rolin of Ardmore, Tennessee, Joe Rolin of Ardmore, Tennessee, Dean Rolin of Huntsville, Alabama, and Stanley Rolin of Ardmore, Tennessee; two sisters: Nellie Van Manen of Ardmore, Tennessee, and Mary Marcella Yaddack of Dell City, Oklahoma; seven Grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.