

Perry Leland Brown Jr.

August 5, 1942 - October 23, 2024

Perry Leland Brown, Jr., 82, of Ardmore, Alabama passed away peacefully on Wednesday, October 23, 2024, at Meadowbrook Senior Living in Pulaski, Tennessee.

Mr. Brown lived in the Ardmore area his whole life where he was a member of New Hope Baptist Church. After serving in the United States Army, he became a lifelong supporter of veterans. In his free time, he enjoyed keeping his yard looking great and working on cars.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Perry Brown, Sr. and Maime Roland Brown, one sister, Peggy Bishop, as well as one niece, Sheree Proconier.

He is survived by his wife, Sharlene Brown, two daughters, Jeanie (Andy) Swinford and Amanda Brown McBay, one stepdaughter, Jackie (Frankie) Sledge, six grandchildren: Amberly McBay, Tiffany McBay, Abbygail Reynolds, Lane Reynolds, Nathan (Heather) Williams, and Seth (Tiffanee) Williams, as well as four great grandchildren: Kylah, Paislee, Ember, and Rylee Jo.

The family has made plans to have a private service at a later date.

Ardmore Chapel Funeral Home is assisting the family.

Tribute Wall

“ *Rest Easy My Friend. You were One of the Kindest Men I ever Met.
You will always be remembered.* ”

Joanne Sellars - October 30, 2024 at 05:09 PM