

Robbie Downing Turner

August 16, 1913 - March 29, 2003

Robbie Downing Turner, 89, of Railroad Street, Ardmore, Tennessee, died March 29, 2003, at Sunbridge Care and Rehabilitation Center in Ardmore, Tennessee. Funeral Services were held at 2:00 P.M. on Monday, March 31, 2003, at Ardmore Memorial Funeral Home with Rev. Horace Bass, Rev. Dorris Frence, and Bro. James Holt officiation. Burial was in Blanche Cemetery with Ardmore Memorial Funeral Home in charge. Mrs. Turner was the oldest charter member of the Ardmore Methodist Church. The granddaughter of Civil War Veteran, Frances Marion Downing who died in 1930, she played Dixie on the piano the day he died. Mrs. Turner had retired from The Community Shopper and an avid lover of music and art. She was born in Ardmore, Tennessee on August 16, 1913, to the late Talley Pryor and Sara Elizabeth Roland Downing. She was preceded in death by her husband, Bob Turner, and a son, Bobby Turner. Survivors include her daughter, Sharlene and husband Perry Brown of Ardmore, Alabama; a granddaughter, Jackie Williams of Taft, Tennessee; great-grandsons, Nathan and Seth Williams of Taft, Tennessee; and several nieces and nephews.