“ For the family: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. May you find consolation in your precious memories, the love of your family and friends, and the reassurance found in God’s word. Though death is the legacy of our forefather Adam (Romans 5:12), we have not been left without hope. The ancient patriarch Job had deep faith in a future resurrection (Job 14:14,15). May that hope bring you peace of mind as well. We will soon see our dead loved ones again. Please feel free to contact me.

“ May I offer my sympathies on your loss. It’s so hard to lose someone we hold dear. I have found much comfort in the words of Jesus at John 11:23-25; “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.” A wonderful promise that we can put our confidence in.
