“ For the family: May you find consolation in your precious memories, the love of your family and friends, and the reassurance found in God’s word. Though death is the legacy of our forefather Adam (Romans 5:12), we are not without hope. The ancient patriarch Job had deep faith in a future resurrection (Job 14:14, 15). May that hope bring you peace of mind as well. We will see our dead loved ones again.

“ May I offer you, the family, my sympathies on your loss. I have found much comfort in the words of John 11:23-25; Jesus said to Martha: “Your brother will rise.” Martha said to him: “I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day.” Jesus said to her: “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.” Death may claim our loved ones for a time but we will receive them back.
