“ Whenever I was in the Limelstone County, Giles County, Tennessee area, I stopped by Ann's for a visit. We engaged talking about the Hastings, Dunnavant, and collateral families histories. We spent the better part of a snowy afternoon talking about her King family line and the thousands of transcribed obituaries I'd lucked into at a garage/estate sale at a property not too far from her. Rest in peace, Ann.

“ I will always remember her ability to play softball. She was a wonderful friend. We all grew up together, so we were like sisters. I will always remember her kindness. Loved you sweet lady.
