“ I know there is nothing I can say that will comfort this family, but I feel the need to try. I went to school with Derrick many years ago. When I heard about this loss, I felt the need to tell the wife that I am truly sorry. I know that there will be times of heartache, and trials- but you will make it. I do not know you, but I believe I met you years ago at Walmart Vision Center in Athens. But I will pray for comfort and strength for you and your family.

“ Our hearts, thoughts and prayers are with you Benny and Betty. We fully understand what you are going through and no words will make you feel any less grief. God needed Derrick just as he did our son Jeremy. We will never understand or accept Gods needs but we do know that they along with your other son are content now. God loves you.
