

Wilton Odell Ary McClure

August 30, 1920 - December 17, 2003

Wilton Odell Ary McClure, 83, of McAllister Drive, SW, Huntsville, Alabama, died Wednesday, December 17, 2003, at Windsor House in Huntsville, Alabama. Funeral Services were held at 11:00 A.M. on Friday, December 19, 2003, at Ardmore Memorial Funeral Home with Rev. Tony Billions officiating. Burial was in Gatlin Cemetery with Ardmore Memorial Funeral Home in charge. Pallbearers were Jimmy Warren, Charles Yarbrough, Perry Stevenson, William Ary, Billy Ary, and Aaron Hughes. Mrs. McClure was born in Perry County, Tennessee on August 30, 1920, to William Frank Ary and Myrtle Sanders Ary. She lived in the Nashville, Tennessee area until coming to North Alabama about twenty years ago. She worked as a clerk with the State of Tennessee until retiring. She was a member of Tusculm Hills Baptist Church in Nashville, Tennessee. Her most pleasant love was camping. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Earl McClure, a son, William Earl McClure, and two brothers, Junior and Robert Ary. Survivors include two brothers, J.G. Ary of Ardmore, Alabama, and Jerry Ary of Toney, Alabama; five sisters, Pearl Warren of Huntsville, Alabama, Evelyn Wells of New Market, Alabama, Barbara Montgomery of Brentwood, Tennessee, Frankie Stone of Goodlettsville, Tennessee, and Willie Emma Billions of Ardmore, Alabama; two grandchildren, Tonya Seay of Clarksville, Tennessee and Tiffany Hughes of Nashville, Tennessee; and three great-grandchildren, Riley Hughes, Ryan Hughes, and Roman Hand.